

HAZEL PARK

RACING

THE TRAINER

Donna Scott stands as one of country racing's most respected and accomplished trainers, known for her exceptional horsemanship, unwavering dedication, and ability to consistently produce high-performing racehorses. Her stellar career features standout successes with horses such as Lord Von Costa, Our Last Cash, Bennelong Dancer, One Hard Lady and Villasaurus, each contributing to her reputation for developing tough, competitive runners capable of excelling on major race days.

Donna's training statistics speak for themselves. She has maintained an impressive winning and place strike rate over many seasons, demonstrating remarkable consistency across both provincial and country circuits. Her skill, attention to detail, and deep understanding of each horse's individual needs have made her a sought-after trainer and a trusted partner for owners.

Her achievements include winning back-to-back Albury Trainer of the Year titles, a testament to her professionalism and her ability to keep delivering results at the highest standard. Donna has also enjoyed notable success in the Country Championships, regularly preparing contenders who perform strongly in one of NSW country racing's most competitive and prestigious series.

WHAT WE OFFER

Hazel Park was established in 2011 and is a family operation. The operation is named after Hazel Hulm who was the head of the family until her passing in 2016.

Hazel Park spelling in Mountain Creek, NSW is a 65 acre property that is used for both spelling and breeding. It has fully equipped stables, multiple day yards and electrified safety fencing in all paddocks.

Hazel Park resident trainer Donna Scott operates the first class facility that consists of five day yards, 24 large inside boxes, undercover five-horse walker, state of the art treadmill, access to a horse swimming pool, two sand tracks and grass course proper. Hazel Park is lucky to have access to excellent vets, horse chiropractor, farrier and a first class water walking facility.

At Hazel Park Racing, Donna leads with passion, experience, and integrity. Her commitment to excellence continues to shape the stable's success and solidify its reputation within the industry.
